

Diploma in Advanced Accounting Program Admission Questions

Answer each of the 6 questions and sub-sections – no bullet points.

Limit your answers to a maximum of 5 pages.

FORMAT: 1.5 line spacing, 2.54cm (1”) margins around, 12-point font. Include your name in a header on each page, and list all questions and sub-sections before your answers.

Save your file as “LAST NAME, FIRST NAME – Advanced Accounting Admission Questions”.

Submit your responses in a PDF or Word document to csaccounting@langara.ca.

1. Explain how the Advanced Accounting program would be a good fit for your career goals.
 - Include both why and how you came to decide to study accounting.
2. How would your friends, colleagues, employers and your past teachers, describe you?
 - What areas for personal growth and professional development would they identify?
3. Describe difficulties or challenges that you may experience both academically and professionally in the field of accounting.
 - Include why you think this would be the case, and how you plan to address these challenges.
4. Describe your learning experience with post-secondary education.
 - What academic achievement has made you the most confident?
 - What setbacks, disappointments, or frustrations have you experienced in school, and how did you handle them?
 - Describe a time when you did not get along with a classmate or instructor
5. The Advanced Accounting program is an intense program that requires students to be in class a minimum of 12 hours per week and approximately 20-30 hours of course work each week. Describe how you will manage this to ensure your success. What supports will you have in place to ensure you are able to succeed in the program?
6. What made you choose the Diploma in Advanced Accounting program at Langara College?
 - Were you able to compare programs at other institutions?
 - What is the most important thing to you about the accounting program you attend?